

ETHICAL ADVISORY BOARD - NEAR

Gert Helgesson, Professor of Medical Ethics, Stockholm Centre for Healthcare Ethics (CHE), Department of Learning, Informatics, Management, and Ethics (LIME), Karolinska Institutet (KI).

Gert's major research interests are research ethics, scientific misconduct, and questions related to research participants' autonomy. In general, he is interested in combining theoretical philosophy with empirical research in relation to normative values.

Heidi C. Howard, PhD, Senior Researcher, Centre for Research Ethics & Bioethics, Department of Public Health and Caring Sciences, Uppsala University (UU).

Heidi's main areas of research are the ethical, legal and social aspects of genetic testing, public health genomics, new genomic technologies, participant-centric research initiatives, and the translation of genomics from the laboratory to the clinic.

Marit Silén, PhD, Senior lecturer, Department of Caring Sciences, University of Gävle (HiG).

Marit's main research interests are related to care ethics and health promoting work environments for personnel within the health care sector. In detail, she is interested in investigating ethical problems and national value-system within the health care, as well as geriatric care from the elderly and personnel's perspective.

Torbjörn Tännsjö, Professor of Practical Philosophy, Stockholm University (SU) and Professor of Medical Ethics, Karolinska Institutet (KI). Director of Stockholm Centre for Healthcare Ethics (CHE) at SU, KI, and the Royal Institute of Technology (KTH).

Torbjörn's major research interest include medical ethics, and moral- and political philosophy. He is active in the public debate on issues related to medical ethics and political philosophy.