

SOCIETAL ADVISORY BOARD - NEAR

Åsa Craftman PhD, Lector at Sophiahemmet. Nurse. Member of the Scientific Advisory Board for Human Pharmaceuticals at the Swedish Medical Products Agency, acting as a representant for nursing care. Åsa's main teaching topic is issues related to dementia care.

Wilhelmina Hoffman, President of the Swedish Dementia Centre (SDC) and Chief Executive Officer at Silviahemmet. Geriatrician. Wilhelmina has won several awards for her dedicated work on dementia and better health care for older persons.

Mats Ericson, Professor of Industrial Work Science (Ergonomics), Royal Institute of Technology (KTH) and Associate Professor in Anatomy, Karolinska Institutet (KI). Mats is also the Chairman of The Swedish Association of University Teachers and Researchers (SULF).

Maria Nilsson, PhD student at The Swedish Family Care Competence Centre (SFCCC), Linnaeus University (Lnu). Nurse with specialisation within operation. Maria's PhD project is focused on older individuals and their relatives, as well as issues concerning e-health care.

Eva Eriksson, Chair of SPF Seniorerna. Eva has been a member of the parliament and the vice party leader for the Liberal party in Sweden. She has also been working at the region council and as a governor for the county of Värmland. Eva has also led several public investigations.

Christina Tallberg, Chairwoman of the Swedish National Pensioner's Organisation (PRO). Christina has worked on social- and culture-related issues in the region of Stockholm. She has also been a member and the chairperson for the representative assembly of the county council.

Johan Fastbom, Professor of Geriatric Pharmacology, Department of Neurobiology, Care Sciences and Society (NVS), Karolinska Institutet (KI), MD. Johan also works at the National Board of Health and Welfare where he is investigating pharmaceutical questions among older persons.

Barbro Westerholm, Associate Professor at Karolinska Institutet (KI) in 1965, MD. Member of the parliament for the Liberal party in Sweden. Barbro has also been the Director General of the National Board of Health and Welfare in 1979-85 and was the Chair of PRO, 1999-2005.